

DECLARATION OF EVA ROBINSON

My name is Eva Robinson. I am over the age of 18 and fully competent to make this declaration. Under penalty of perjury, I state the following:

1. I am a full-time student in my second year at the University of Florida (UF).
2. I am an art major.
3. I am African-American
4. As a UF student, I reside approximately nine months of the year in Gainesville, Alachua County, Florida.
5. When school is not in session, I live in my parents' home near Jacksonville, North Carolina.
6. I am registered to vote in Alachua County.
7. I had a plan to vote in the 2020 presidential preference primary.
8. My plan to vote was to vote early in person at the early voting site on UF's campus at the J. Wayne Reitz Student Union.
9. On or about Tuesday, March 3, 2020, I visited the Reitz early voting location to vote.
10. I was turned away because the residential address in my pollbook entry needed to be updated; the pollbook contained my first year dormitory address.
11. My current dormitory is across a street from my first year dormitory, but has a complex and markedly different address.
12. I made a new plan to confirm and update my registration with my current address, and vote early in person at the Reitz early voting location the following week.
13. On or about Monday, March 9, and on Wednesday, March 11, 2020, UF administrative leadership sent emails advising students that UF would transition courses online due to the coronavirus outbreak.
14. The Wednesday, March 11, 2020 email also stated, "UF is encouraging all students to return to their homes and remain there until March 30."
15. Despite deadline pressure on major academic requirements, I complied with this directive.
16. I packed my belongings and returned home to North Carolina on Friday, March 13, 2020.

17. I was unable to return to the Reitz early voting location before being directed to leave UF.
18. The coronavirus outbreak, and its effects on normal activities at UF and displacement of students, has disrupted my plan to vote.
19. It is important to me to vote. Without a vote, I don't feel like I have a say in my future.

Pursuant to Fla. Stat. § 92.525: Under penalties of perjury, I declare that I have read the foregoing document and that the facts stated in it are true.
