Volunteer as a poll worker or poll monitor.

Elections don't run on their own. They depend on thousands of ordinary people stepping up as poll workers, poll monitors, and legal observers to help ensure voting runs smoothly and safely for everyone. Poll workers keep polling places running by helping voters check in, managing voter lines, troubleshooting equipment, and more.

To volunteer as a poll worker, sign up with Power the Polls at powerthepolls.org.

Poll monitors and legal observers help observe and monitor election administration to ensure everyone can freely cast their ballot without fear or intimidation.

To volunteer as a poll monitor, sign up with the national, nonpartisan Election Protection coalition at protectthevote.net or with Black Voters Matter at blackvotersmatterfund.org/poll-monitors.

Know your rights on election day!

- 1 If the polls close and you are still in line, stay in line. Do not leave because the posted closing time has passed.

- 3 If you make a mistake on your ballot, do not submit it! Ask for a new one.
- 4 If your voting precinct uses machines to vote and their machines are down, ask for a paper ballot. Do not leave without voting.
- 5 You have the right to vote free from intimidation, it's illegal for anyone to try to stop you from voting.
- 6 You have the right to accessible voting. Voters with disabilities are entitled to an accessible voting process and the opportunity to vote privately and independently.
